SCARECROW IN THE PARK:

WRAP UP. Good marketing, flyers distributed through the students and the use of the Facebook event page. Turnout was great with the help of ACCESS there were over 40 scarecrows. Idea for next year would give the participants an option to return the frame or keep their scarecrow intact for a small fee.

POLE BANNERS:

Date of Sunday November 20 to repair any broken pole banners. More research for a better-quality banner needs to be done.

FARMERS MARKET AND HOLIDAY BAZAAR:

Holiday Bazaar, December 10, 2022, 9 to 2. Vendor participation is full (20). There will be a Santa to distribute candy canes.

FINANCIALS:

Small amount of Farmers Market vendor money will get deposited. Jason will meet with the Winchester Historical Society to give them our donation from the proceeds of the Ashuelot Bridge Dinner this coming Thursday.

WINCHESTER WINTER WONDERLAND:

Discussion of dates. December 4, enter by deadline. December 9, map will be generated. December 9 until December 31 voting takes place. January 1, winners announced. Jess has taken on the task of developing and executing the processes involved to hold this event.
